

Moving ahead towards the implementation of the SSF Guidelines, linking them with MPAs and OEABMs in Central America

Vivienne Solis, ICSF/CoopeSoliDar R.L

The first things to remember from Fishers' CSOs considerations:

- We need to inform about the guidelines
- We need material that is simple, that can be understandable
- In our own languages
- Practical examples, reality, improvement
- We want the guidelines not to be sequestrated

Diversity of livelihoods!

What has worked about the guidelines!

Towards local governance

Co-managed model for SSF: Marine Responsible Fishing Areas

Networking and Training of trainees:

- Discussing with fishers organizations the Guidelines
- Applying them in the Marine Responsible Fishing Areas
- Promoting information sharing and more training from trainees.

Networking and alliances

Team of communicators of the guidelines

Training sessions:

Practical sharing!

Workshops in communities

Governance Workshop in San Juanillo; Guanacaste.

Implementing in practice:

- Indigenous people discussion:

Implementing in practice:

- Fisherwomen workshop and learning route

Descent Work/Gender

- Chomes:

Tenure:

- Dominicalito

Management of the resources in a sustainable way:

- Tárcoles

We want to keep fishing with dignity, security and happiness!

For the future:

- An observatory to measure the SSF Guidelines implementation advances?
- A continuous accountability system!

Thank you!
